Put on your sports reporter hat...

Now that you have some background information about the Labor Day Motorcycle Race, you are ready to write an article for the sports page. The article will need to tell about the race as well as give the race results. You will find this information in the Clubs and Competition gallery on the second floor. Use the inverted pyramid below to find and record the result of the 1919 Labor Day Race and gather any other important information to write your article. The headline for the article has been completed for you.
